BOYD VOTES TO PROTECT OUR PLEDGE

Pledge Protection Act passes in the House of Representatives

WASHINGTON, D.C.-Congressman Allen Boyd (D-FL) today voted in favor of the Pledge Protection Act.

The Pledge Protection Act was introduced in response to a 2002 decision by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

"For the past five decades, children and adults alike have recited the Pledge of Allegiance," said Congressman Boyd.
